

Scott currently serves as band director for South Middle School in Eau Claire, WI teaching sixth grade, seventh grade, and eighth grade bands, jazz band, and jazz combo.

Scott graduated from UW-Eau Claire with a bachelors in music education and the College of St. Scholastica with a master's in education.

He performs on saxophone and bass in various freelance settings. Notable involvement includes a longtime position on saxophone with the Chippewa Valley Jazz Orchestra where he also served as artistic director during the 2018-2022 seasons.

Scott founded the Music With Intention music publishing company in 2023, publishing methods and works based on his teachings and those of his friends.