

Adam Bever grew up in White Bear Lake, MN and received his bachelor's degree in Music Education from UW-Eau Claire in 1997. He taught for 16 years at Unity High School in Balsam Lake, WI before coming to Rice Lake in the Fall of 2013. Adam is currently the primary instructor for the sixth grade band and middle school jazz ensemble. He has completed his Master's degree in teaching and learning through St. Mary's University in Winona, MN. Adam has been playing trombone and educating people in music for over 20 years in some capacity. Adam has freelanced in the Twin Cities and Duluth area in all styles of music. Some groups he has performed with include The Glenn Miller Orchestra, The Benny Goodman Orchestra, Guy Lombardo and the Royal Canadians, The Four Tops, and the Temptations. He has also played with the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra and has done commercial work in the Twin Cities and Northwest Wisconsin markets. Adam is a sought after clinician in Wisconsin and Minnesota. He is an active judge for the Wisconsin State Music Association, and has served on several committees for that organization.

Adam is married to Julie Bever and has five children, Scott, Kiera, Oshūn, Laif and Levi. His hobbies include fishing, technology, camping, antique cars and tractors.